Arrest Maniac Suspected of Murders in New York

CAPTURED IN PHILADELPHIA THIS MORNING

Traced Through Letter Sent Long Island Man Recently

Philadelphia, Pa., June 20.—(UP)—Joseph Clarke, 34-year-old escaped inmate of the Creedmore, N. Y., hospital for the insane, was arrested here today and after a brief hearing, was ordered sent to New York as a suspect in the "maniac murders" of Queens, Long Island.

He was traced through a letter which had been received some days ago by P. M. Clarke of Long Island. At almost the time Clarke was taken into custody today John Moszynski, brother of Joseph Moszynski, the first man murdered by the Queens mad man, received a special delivery letter at his home here, threatening him with death.

Escaped in 1929.

Clarke, according to police, escaped June 3, 1929, from the Creedmore hospital.

"You won't take me back," he screamed repeatedly as five detectives seized him. Clarke put up a desperate battle with the officers, but later signified his willingness to waive extradition.

He refused to discuss the murders of Neol Sowley and Joseph Moszynski. He mumbled about a pretty "blonde nurse," however, and police pointed out that the maniac slayer mentioned a blonde nurse in his letters to a New York newspaper.

Found Many Letters.

Further mention of the nurse was found in 200 mimeographed letters seized in his room. They bore a Brooklyn, N. Y., return address and were addressed to persons in New York City.

The letters were incoherent and mentioned many stage celebrities, including Earl Carroll, Helen Morgan, Mae Murray, Gilda Gray, Al Joelson, Ann Pennington, George Cohan, Fred Stone, Marion Davies, Buter Collier, Will Rogers, Greta Garbo, Bessie Love, Rudy Vallee, George Olsen, Ted Lewis and former heavyweight boxing champion, Jack Johnson.

Another letter, marked with the name of the Queens district attorney, asked that habeas corpus action be started against the authorities of the Creedmore institution.

THIRD MAN SHOT

New York, June 20.—(AP)—Search for the maniac slayer who in letters to a newspaper has admitted the killing of two men in Queens and threatened 14 others, turned to Brooklyn today after a third man had been shot and critically wounded.

Police said the description of the assailant of Morris Horwitz, 50, an insurance broker, who was shot in his automobile early today, tallied with the description they have for the slayer of Joseph Moszynski and Neol Sowley in Queens.

Horwitz told police that he was sitting with his wife in his car in front of his home on Carroll street, talking to a daughter who sat on the porch, when a man with a pistol in his hand thrust his head through a window of the car.

"Move over, start that car and keep going or I'll kill you," Horwitz said the man ordered.

Horwitz moved over and the man jumped into the car. He struck Horwitz over the head with his gun then shot him in the shoulder. The bullet took a downward course and lodged in the abdomen. The man then fled.

MESSAGE SENT AROUND WORLD IN RECORD TIME

Five Minutes And 32 Seconds Required In Transmission

San Francisco, Calif., June 20.—(UP)—The record for speed in transmission of a cablegram around the world set May 13, 1927, from Columbia, Missouri, by the United Press, was broken here last night when the National Electric Light Association transmitted a 32-word cablegram around the world in five minutes and 32 seconds.

The previous record held by the United Press was eight minutes flat. It had stood for a little more than three years.

The 38 words, a message from Preston A. Arkwright, chairman of the Public Policy Committee, to Matthew S. Sloan, retiring President of the National Electric Light Association, was handed to a girl operator at 10:57.

The message crossed the Pacific by commercial cable, to Honolulu and the Midway Island. At Guam the advanced time of the eastern hemisphere carried it into Friday.

The winged words hurried to Shanghai, where they paused a second after completing the first leg of 9,000 miles. The message was transferred by pneumatic tubes to Great Northern Telegram Co. and sent on its way to Irkutsk, Siberia, and from there to Ekaterinburg.

After Leningrad came London and the finish of its second 9,600-mile leg. Here the Commercial Cable Co. took charge of the words and operators shot them by under sea cables to the offices in New York.

Relayed by Postal Telegraph to Chicago, the message returned to Thursday time. Over the jagged peaks of the Rockies the communication of congratulatory whirled and into San Francisco and the hands of President Sloan.

In five minutes and a few seconds it had flashed around the world.

Ceremony Will Occur Just Five Months After Fire

The cornerstone of the new Prairieville school building will be laid next Monday evening at 6:45 P. M., with appropriate ceremonies.

It is just five months since the building was destroyed by fire, shortly after midnight, Jan. 17. Since that time school has been held in the Sunday school room of the church building, which was fitted up for the purpose.

On February 25, the people of the district voted unanimously to build a new school house on the old site, and by a vote of 40 to 6, authorized a bond issue of $10,000 for the purpose. An architect was engaged to draw plans for a building, and these plans were accepted by the school board and bids called for. The architect employed is Walter Bort, member of a firm of architects of Clinton, Iowa. All first bids were rejected as they were above the amount available for the building.

After making some changes in the plans, bids were again received, and the contract was awarded to Henry Mades of Polo, Ill. On May 19 and 20, men of the district donated their time and their trucks and hauled time and their trucks and hauled comprising a carload, or 25,000 brick. This was the second piece of donation work, the first one being the removal of all the basement a few days after the fire. On May 31, the day after the brick were hauled, workmen began excavating to enlarge the basement. The work has gone ahead rapidly since that time, the concrete walks were poured June 3, 4 and 5.

The cornerstone will be placed in the northeast corner of the building. Beneath this stone will be placed a copper box about 10 1/2 inches square, which will contain the following articles:

1. A history of the Prairieville school written by Leroy T. Powers.

2. Photographs of the directors who were in office when the old school house was erected in 1858.

3. Photograph of Austin Powers, the only person now living in the district who was living here at the time the building was erected.

4. Kodak pictures of the old building, and of the ruins taken just before the walls were pulled down, the day after the fire.

5. A map of the district, No. 260, also a map of the village of Prairieville. These maps drawn by Lloyd Thummel.

6. A list of all patrons of the school.

7. A copy of a sermon preached by Dr. C. B. Thummel in the school house, at the funeral obsequies for President Lincoln, April 19, 1865.

8. Old insurance policies on the building, the first one dated 1859.

9. Copies of the Sterling Gazette and the Dixon Telegraph.

The program will be as follows: Music. Laying of Cornerstone. Address by County Superintendent L. W. Miller of Dixon.

Vocal Duets by Lelia Thummel and Marion Myers. This song was written especially for the occasion by Mrs. Edna Pine, teacher of the upper grades of the school.

It is hoped that there may be a good attendance of patrons and friends of the school, and any others interested to witness the laying of the cornerstone.

MRS. MARY L. LORD DIED AT HOME LAST EVE

100 Years Old Last Monday; Lived Here For 92 Years

Mrs. Mary Louise Lord, who passed her 100th birthday Monday of this week, passed away at 8:50 o'clock last evening at her home at 123 E. Chamberlain street, death resulting from the infirmities of her advanced age.

Funeral services will be held at the home at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. Rev. L. B. Fischer of the Chicago Church of the Redeemer officiating, and with burial in the Palmyra cemetery.

Friends are requested to omit flowers.

Born In Massachusetts.

On June 16th, 1830, the year that Dixon was officially founded, Moss M. and Orrel (Smith) Warner welcomed a baby daughter in their home at Barre, Massachusetts. Eight years later the Warners decided to emigrate to the newly-opened Illinois territory, still a vast wilderness. Covered wagons carried them to the Great Lakes, ships brought them to Chicago and the oxen-drawn wagons resumed their tortuous advance over the primitive trails of the early days.

Arriving at Dixon when the present city was a mere Indian trading post and ferry station with a few cabins on the river bank, Mr. Warner cast about for suitable farm land and wisely chose a tract in the fertile rolling slopes of what is now Palmyra township. The first winter the Warner family spent in a log cabin on Rock River near Albertsons' Springs, west of Dixon and Mr. Warner built a home on his land at the spot now known as Rut's hill.

The Wetherbee family, who had joined fortunes with the Warners on the migration from the east, settled near Prairieville.

Traded Shoes For Land.

Before coming west Mr. Warner had invested some of his funds in a quantity of shoes. Shoes were cheap in Massachusetts but were an expensive commodity in the Illinois wilderness. He had a huge "grandfather's cack" and he packed it full of the valuable shoes and brought them safely over the long trail and realized enough for them to pay for a part of the government land that he took up. His land cost him $125 an acre.

Schools Were Scarce.

There were no country schools in those days, but Mrs. Wetherbee gave the few children of the community lessons at her home for a time and later Mary Louise came to Dixon and stayed with relatives while she attended school. She also went to a school in Sterling for a time, when she was older.

At the age of 21 Mary Louise Warner was married to John L. Lord, son of another pioneer family who had come to this community at about the same time. It is interesting to note that although the two families did not meet enroute from their eastern homes, part of the household goods of the Lord family was shipped on the same boat that carried the Warners through the Great Lakes.

John Lord's father had established a blacksmith shop in a little group building on the top of a big hill west of Dixon which has been known for nearly a century as "Lord's Hill." Later the Lord's developed a wagon building shop and under the direction of young John Lord a wagon and buggy building factory of considerable importance flourished there.

The wedding of John Lord and Mary Louise Warner took place on June 17th, 1851, and a notice of the wedding was chronicled in The Dixon Telegraph, which had been established only a few weeks before.

Mr. and Mrs. Lord built a beautiful home on the top of the hill and Mr. Lord devoted himself to his wagon building industry, manufacturing fine and sturdy vehicles of every description. One of his products, a light sulky, was shipped to George Pege in Switzerland. Mr. Lord died March 15, 1901, just a short time before his golden wedding anniversary. He was a splendid character, revered throughout the community. He was

DETROIT MAYOR FACING RECALL; PETITION FILED

111,270 Voters Signed A Paper Asking Election To Oust Him

Detroit, June 20.—(AP)—With a petition bearing 111,270 names officially on file demanding the recall of Mayor Charles Bowles, the ouster movement begun more than a month ago was expected to find its way into the courts today. From sources close to the administration it was learned that an injunction would be sought, enjoining City Clerk Richard W. Reading from issuing the call for an election on the recall of the Mayor as he is required to do within five days if a sufficient number of bona-fide signatures are found on the petition. The grounds to be urged for such an injunction were not revealed.

Mayor Bowles characterized the filing of the petition as "the most contemptible, cowardly and despicable thing that has ever come to my attention," and "a conspiracy on the part of certain selfish individuals to discredit me and to remove me from office so that their own selfish interests may be served."

John Gillespie, Commissioner of Public Works and considered the Mayor's "right hand man," figures largely in the charges contained in the recall petition. It is alleged that the Mayor gave him official direction of public garbage disposal despite Gillespie's "long private monopoly of

ROCKFORD MAN CONVICTED OF DEATH OF SON-IN-LAW; SENTENCE, LIFE IN CELL

Rockford, Ill., June 20.—(AP)—John Pokosa was convicted today of the murder of his daughter's husband of six days, Gordon Saaf. The jury voted a life sentence.

Pokosa had forbidden his daughter, Estelle, to marry Saaf because of religious differences. The girl defied him and eloped to Chicago. On May 4, four days later, the couple returned to Rockford and called at the Pokosa home to collect the bride's be'ongings. The father-in-law was waiting for them, quarreled with Saaf and shot him in the back.

Mrs. Saaf fled into a bedroom and, pursued by her father, leaped from a window. She refused to see him again until yesterday, when she appeared in the Criminal Court and testified against him.

The defense pleaded insanity. Prosecutors did not demand the death penalty, asking only "punishment consonant with the crime."

BODY OF RIDE VICTIM FOUND IN JUNK HEAP

Dead Man Had Police Record; Was One Of Capone Gang

Chicago, June 20.—(AP)—The rule of the gun has not ended.

The body of Lorenzo Juliano, still by gun slugs, gave mute re-tort to the proclamation of Cook county's united law enforcement bodies that crimes of violence shall stop.

Possessor of an unsavory reputation as bomber, gunman and big shot of alcohol syndicate, Juliano was found shot to death in an automobile mired in a Blue Island junk heap. His killers had wrapped the body in canvas and run the car down a railway embankment in the southern suburb, one of the wet spots of Chicago's girdle.

His execution fell outside the jurisdiction of Acting Commissioner John H. Alcock of the Chicago police but immediate investigation was begun by Coroner Herman N. Bundesen and State's Attorney Swanson, the man whose home Juliano was once accused of bombing.

Juliano's police record for the last three years included suspicion of eight murders and a dozen bombings.

Al Capone Gangster

Juliano was a reputed lieutenant of Al Capone, the boss of a ring of alcohol distillers operating in the south side suburbs and Indianapolis, and his business was understood also to embrace the lucrative slot machine concessions of his residential district.

Acting Commissioner Alcock, pursuing his intention to dig at the root of the crime situation, proceeded today with the reorganization of his force and conferred with E. C. Yellowley, prohibition administrator.

The conference resulted in an agreement that all liquor cases developed by the police will be turned over to the government except those involving petty offenders. Alcock announced that evidence obtained last night in a raid at the Versailles Cafe, where $5,000 worth of liquor was seized on his orders, would be delivered to the U. S. District Attorney for prosecution.

Yellowley and Alcock exchanged promises of full cooperation. "We had a very satisfactory conference in regard to the law," the Prohibition Administrator said.

George Keister Is Called At Midnight

Mr. Keister was born in South Dixon township, where he spent his boyhood and later removed to Nelson township on the Rock Island road where he spent the remainder of his life. He leaves to mourn his passing three sisters, Misses Carrie and Jane at home, Mrs. Nathan Wilard of Smithton, Mo., and five brothers, Fred and August of Nelson township, Charles of Belvidere, William of Dallas, Iowa, and Albert of Bangor, Mich.

IN JUNE

LET roads be taken that run long, and wind;
And wild strange trails be gayly followed now;

On unknown open banks young-fingered creepers bind
Such nooks to dream in underneath the sweeping bough.

And under endless breeze-blown heaven try Pattern and distance of any trampled track;

Let dawn flash up; let sunset pass you by
And dusk bestow a moth to flutter past, and back.

As well, bestow the simple camplight, wondrous old;
Soft glow of moonbeams in measures of sweet dew;

And instant, utter sleep for which the given day was sold,
By which the dawn is bought, once more, for you.

Catch the green scarves above you from bare shoulders of the wind;
Swim into clear wide waters And dabble in a brook;
Forget all time behind this;
Forget a mock that grinned;
Through green glory, for a season, Just roiter on, and look.

Read vigor-hashed harmonious lines, Accidental green designs
Written in the sun-leaf
On your world's blue wall
In June.

The meeting was opened with a piano solo, played by Frances Hermes. Fourteen members answered the roll call. In answer to the roll call an English or American literary author's name was given by each member. The secretary's report of the last meeting was then read. Plans were made for making money for the treasury. After a discussion a bake sale was decided upon which will be held at Kugler's store Saturday, June 28. A picnic was talked about. It was decided that it would be held at Lowell park, the date not being set. Loyola Fitzpatrick gave a health talk on "Correct Posture". Garments being made now were brought to the meeting seemed which were discussed as to the right kind of seams and neatness. A lesson upon the different types of mending was given by Lenora Kofod, the club leader. The meeting was then adjourned by repeating the club pledge. A delicious lunch, consisting of butterscotch pie and lemonade was served by the hostess. The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to recreation.

All were glad to have present at this meeting Mrs. Severud, the county Home Bureau advisor, whose suggestions and help were greatly appreciated.

Large Crowd Attended Concert and Social

A record breaking crowd attended the ice cream social, Wednesday evening, on the spacious lawn of St. Mary's school, which was beautifully illuminated for the occasion.

All were charmed with the music furnished by the newly organized and youthful St. Mary's band.

The ladies of the committee realized much more than they anticipated and appreciated the good will which was shown.

Sturtz-Jenner Wedding Reported

A wedding ceremony of much interest to Dixon friends was performed at noon on June 9th by the Reverend F. A. Meny at the M. M. Jenner home in Pocahontas, Ill., uniting the lives of Miss Marie Florence Sturtz and Harold Edmund Jenner. The couple were unattended. Miss Hadley played the wedding march.

The bride was prettily attired in a beautiful blue crepe dress with harmonizing accessories and carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Jenner left on a short honeymoon trip to St. Louis.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sturtz of Amboy, Illinois. She graduated in the class of 1930 from the Amboy High School. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Jenner of Freeport, Ill. He is at present employed by the Peoria Toledo Western Railroad as engine inspector. They will make their home in Peoria. Their many friends join in wishing them much happiness in their wedded life.

Shiny Nose? No! Shiny Hose? No! No!

Wayne Dull Finished Stockings

Why does a woman powder her shiny nose? The answer is obvious . . . the dull effect is more flattering. That's why smart women apply the same principle to their legs by wearing Wayne Dull finished hose.

There's a subduing haze about these sheer, filmy stockings that gives a lovely powdered effect, so that legs look slimmer, contours more graceful.

Don't follow the outgrown fashion of wearing shiny, lustrous hose. . . Come to BOWMAN BROS. SHOE STORE and invest in Wayne Dull Finished Hose.

GETTING TOO OLD—AT 30.

The wise virgin will fill her lamp with oil and be ready when the bridegroom cometh, exactly as her great, great, very great grandmother was almost 2000 years ago. The chances are that a husband will last considerably longer than a job, according to statistics gathered in a recent survey of employment agencies and industries which employ women.

An increasingly large number of employers are refusing to accept a girl who has reached the age of 30. Twenty-nine stands as a ripe old age, the last year in which it is possible for a maiden to attempt economic independence.

The survey further reveals that those who have already obtained places in the business world may find themselves classified in the ranks of the feeble upon reaching their 34th birthdays. A woman's usefulness is on the wane, so far as industry is concerned, at that stage.

That women themselves are aware of this is witnessed in the attempt to maintain perpetual youth. Instead of being one's age as gracefully and graciously as possible, women, the last few years, have tried to achieve a perennial 16.

Economic independence for women will suffer a setback if the recent survey is true. They will not be able to count the blessings, one by one, of those who ride shoulder to shoulder with men in the pursuit of life, happiness and a career.

It is a generally accepted fact that a woman's chances of marriage are on the decrease after 25. If her business opportunities are to be placed on a sliding scale, it is quite probable that she will brush up on her biscuits and jams instead of on her typing. It would seem that it is wiser for a maiden to prepare a batch of apple sauce and leave the bacon for Adam to bring home.

Thirty-five is generally accepted by critics as the age at which a woman is supposed to be in the prime of her charm. This may be true, but according to industry she is an old lady. Fortunately, a woman is still efficient as a wife and mother after 29. And maybe she will function more completely in this dual role if the chain of ages is firmly implanted, for married women, who are attempting to increase the family bank account, may find themselves on the retired list.

But those women who secured their jobs under the old regime, forgetting that it would have to give way to the new some day, will have to brush up on their efficiency. Thirty-four is old—too old.

A PARACHUTE JUMPER'S FATE.

Fate can be whimsical almost beyond belief, sometimes. Consider the case of Henry Bushmeyer, parachute jumper. Bushmeyer made his living by making exhibition parachute jumps. He had jumped from airplanes more than 500 times without being hurt.

The other day he went up in an airplane with a friend. It was a pleasure hop, so he did not wear a parachute. The plane crashed. A parachute would have saved his life—but he didn't have one. So Bushmeyer, who had made 500 successful leaps, was killed.

There is a queer, ironic twist to that story that fairly takes one's breath away.

No matter how good this Austrian is, chances are his neighbors will complain of his flat feet.

Because they thought it meant something else, several factions of Chicago gangsters are said to have rushed to the loop to see the demonstration of shorts.

In Chicago it is now proper, of course, for gangsters to refer to their descendants as off-shoots.

The boy who could never be induced near the bath tub has grown up to be a soap sculptor.

Lindy's recent fall from a horse proves that he, like the Prince of Wales, is also an air apparent.

A prize fighter of some success is named "Gorilla" Jones. Now watch other boxers try to ape him.

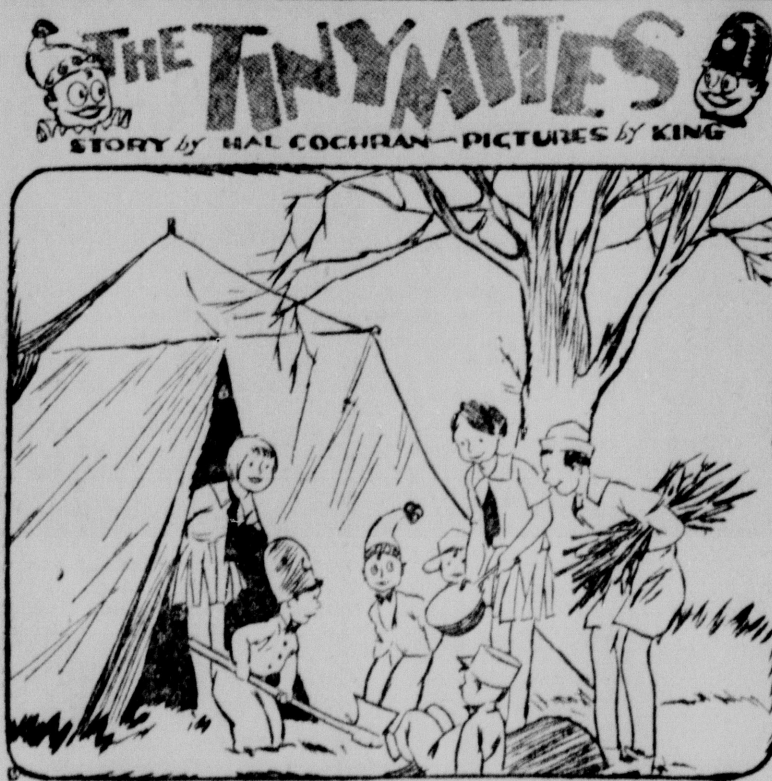

Cal Coolidge's new estate is named "The Beeches." A more fitting name would be "The Silent Oaks."

"Safe Robbers Knock Out a Policeman." Headline. Now if it were the other way around, that would be news.

The motto of the city of Chicago is, "I Will," but the attitude of most of its citizens seems to be "I Won't."

A New York paper runs a column under the caption of "Rod and Gun." Chicago papers may soon copy.

While he was about it he might have committed a more serious crime so as to be sure to swing for the team.

Oh, my, what fun the Tinymites had. Said Scouty. "I am mighty glad that we hopped on this wagon. I just love to ride like this. I think I'll sleep a little while, so while we travel 'bout a mile, watch over me and kindly see that nothing goes amiss."

"Don't worry," said the farmer man. "Just sleep as soundly as you can. You look real tired and I feel sure some rest will do you good." And then he told the others that they too could sleep and stretch out flat. The Travel Man agreed with him and said, "I think they should."

So, as they rolled along the ground, the Tinymites all slept real sound. The road was not so bumpy and they weren't disturbed one bit. At last they hit just one big bump. It woke them up and made them jump. "Oh, gee, that sleep was great," said one. "And now I'm feeling fit."

The farmer's farm was reached real soon. Said he, "Well, lads, it's just high noon. Come right into my house with me and we will have a bite. Of course you'll have to eat plain food." Then Scouty said, "Why, we're not rude. We're glad to eat whatever you have and it will taste just right."

When lunch was over they all went into the yard. An hour was spent in jolling in the rich green grass. Then Scouty said, "Hey! Hark! I hear some voices near at hand. We may find friends. That will be grand!" And then they found the voices came from people in a park. Wee Clowny shouted, loud "Hello! What we would frankly like to know is, can we join your party? We'll behave ourselves real well." "Why, sure," one of the campers cried. "Come up and sit down by my side." The Tinymites joined the campers and the fun they had was swell.

W. VIRGINIA'S STATEHOOD

On June 20, 1863, the State of West Virginia was formally admitted to the Union. The act of admission, which was to take effect upon the insertion of a clause providing for the gradual emancipation of slaves, was approved by President Lincoln the previous year.

During the Civil War a large part of the population of the state was in arms and more than 32,000 men were furnished to the Federal Army. On Feb. 3, 1865, slavery was abolished entirely, in advance of the adoption of the thirteenth amendment.

When the Confederate soldiers returned to the southern and eastern counties, it was feared that the Republican control of the state would be lost. Accordingly, an amendment was added to the constitution disfranchising all who had given aid to the Confederacy after June, 1861.

In 1869 the number of voters totaled 50,000 and the disfranchised about 30,000. By a compromise, franchise for political offenders and the negro was granted in 1871. A year later a new constitution went into force.

"Loaf like a man. Women will never have achieved emancipation until they can relax, with their feet higher than their heads."

—Dr. Olga Stastny.

"New Yorkers will stand for anything but a woman in the subway."

—W. W. Scott, humorist.

"Men are vain, but they won't mind women's working so long as they get smaller salaries for the same jobs."

—Irvin Cobb

BOBBY JONES WINS BRITISH OPEN TOURNEY

Is Only Golfer Able To Turn Trick Since
Year 1890

By ARCH RODGERS

United Press Staff Correspondent
Hoylake, England, June 20.—(UPI)— Bobby Jones won his third British open golf championship today with an aggregate of 291.

Leo Diegel, American P. G. A. champion who had a chance to overtake the Atlantic in the final round, cracked at the finish.

By this same total—291—Bobby Jones won his first British open championship at Royal Latham St.
Anne's in 1926. He won in 1927 at St. Andrews with an aggregate of 285.

Jones is the first golfer to win both the British amateur and open championships in a single year since John Bull turned the trick back in 1890.
The Atlantic also holds the national open championship of the United States.

Bobby won the present British championship with rounds of 70, 72, 74 and 75.

He equalled the course record on the opening day to tie for the lead with MacDonald Smith and Henry Cotton. The second day's play gave him a lead of one stroke over Fred Robson, his nearest competitor.

Big Archie Compston came from behind with a record breaking 68 in the third round to take the lead by a stroke but Compston, like the others, cracked this afternoon and Jones came on to win.

Diegel, who started his final round two strokes behind Bobby and three behind Compston, had a great chance to win. When Jones took a seven at the eighth hole and Compston blew up early, all the American P. G. A. champion needed was par to win the title.

But Leo himself took 38 to the turn, the same figure Jones required.
Diegel started his homeward pursuit in brilliant fashion but his finish came at the sixteenth, where he took the six that cost him this chance.

Find Suicide's Body

Highland, Ill., June 19.—(AP)—
The body of Oscar Plocher, 39, who disappeared June 11, was found in his automobile, which was secreted in some wood about three miles east of here. He apparently committed suicide. Plocher was married about six months ago and was preparing to move to a farm. The day he disappeared he told his father-in-law he was going to buy some cows. Friends said he had a substantial bank balance.

SEVERE STOMACH TROUBLE ROUTED BY NEW KAVATONE

Sensational Medicine Scores
Another Triumph After Others Had Failed.

THOMAS PATTEE

"For 20 years I suffered with stomach trouble of the worst kind," said Thomas Pattee, who lives at the Savoy Hotel, Kalamazoo, Michigan.
"My digestion was bad that I hated to eat because I would have terrible gas and bloating pains afterward."

"A friend of mine insisted that I try Kavatone, as I had tried other medicines and they had done me no good. After I had finished the first bottle of Kavatone, my stomach became better and my appetite was very good. Food did not hurt me any more. I have gained in weight and strength."

Kavatone has relieved many people of the common ills and ailments such as rheumatism, neuritis, constipation, nervousness, and similar ailments so prevalent at this season.

Kavatone is sold by all the best druggists in Dixon, Illinois, and in all towns throughout this entire section.

Chicago, June 20.—(AP)—The battle of postponements between Otto Von Porat and W. L. (Young) Stribling will become a leather-throwing reality in the Chicago Stadium tonight.

After several days of anxiety for Stadium officials over the condition of Stribling's flighty left hand, only the weighing-in remained to be accomplished before the Southerner and the Norwegian crusher climb into the ring after two postponements, for not more than 10 rounds, and possibly less.

The official weighing ceremony time was shifted from 2 P. M. to 1:15 P. M., the change having been made, the Illinois State Athletic Commission announced, to "avoid confusion." Von Porat was expected to come in at 205 pounds, Stribling at 190.

The postponement from Wednesday night to tonight, granted Stribling because of troubles with his left hand, apparently had not damaged box office affairs. Sidney Strotz, president of the Stadium Corporation, last night was confident that the paid attendance of 20,699 persons who saw the Sammy Mandell-Tony Canzoneri lightweight championship bout last August, would be beaten. He figured on more than 21,000, which would produce a gate of around $85,000.

Interest in the bout centered in the prospect of bringing out a challenger for Max Schmeling's N.
B. A.-New York State Athletic Commission world heavyweight championship. Each is after the chance and will be out for a decisive victory.
By reason of his boxing skill and experience, Stribling continued to rule a 6 to 5 favorite over the Norwegian. Some money was offered 1 to 2 1/2 that Von Porat will knock Stribling out.

Stribling was confident of repeating his victory of two years ago over Von Porat.

Von Porat admitted Stribling's boxing superiority but was confident of getting in with a "solid punch or two," which he figured would be enough to stop Stribling.

The semi-final will involve the initial American appearance of Armando De Carlos, another Italian heavyweight, in a 10-rounder with Hen Mueller, clever German.

The feature bout will be broadcast for the first time in the Stadium's history. The fight will go on the air about 10 P. M., Chicago Daylight Saving Time, over the N. B. C. with WCFL as the outlet.

Baseball Gossip

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.

Associated Press Sports Writer

It is a matter of indisputable record that the Philadelphia Athletics are current champions of the baseball world, and their games of the past few days go a long way toward explaining why they hold that position.

The Athletics were in a bad spot for a while. Crippled by a series of injuries, they saw the Cleveland Indians take first place away from them and lose it again before the onslaught of the New York Yankees.
They came home from a disastrous tour of the west faced by the double threat from these teams, with Washington not far in the background and with a five game series with Cleveland to start their home stay.

The champions began to display their championship calibre right there. They defeated the Indians, 7 to 2, Wednesday and repeated the dose yesterday by a 4 to 2 count, sending Cleveland down into fourth place by the two defeats.

The Yankees threat would not be shaken off although the New Yorkers had to bring in Babe Ruth's famous home run act to defeat the Detroit Tigers, 5 to 4. After fanning in three attempts, the Babe clouted his 22nd home of the year in the seventh inning and provided the margin of victory.

Washington, holding its tie in games with the Yankees for second place, found its newly acquired players a great help in scoring a 3 to 1 victory over the Chicago White Sox.
Al Crowder, formerly of St. Louis, held the White Sox to four hits. Another ex-Brown hit twice in three attempts while the Great Shires gave his old mates a taste of hit batting greatness by hitting three times in four trips to the plate. Danny Mac Fayden was the one star in the fourth American League game. He held the Browns to three hits while Boston won its fourth straight game, 4 to 1.

Only two National League contests escaped the weather in the west and the result of that pair was to bring the Chicago Cubs a game closer to the Brooklyn Robins, the League's foundering leaders. The Cubs open-en a home run assault on Socks Se-bold in the first three innings and scored all their runs for a 10 to 4 triumph. Hack Wilson hit his 10th four bagger, tying Chuck Klein for league leadership, while Woody English and Kiki Cuyler also hit homers in those three big frames.

The Robins failed to offer much support to Adolfo Luque and the Cuban veteran was ousted from his post as pitching leader of the league with a 5-0 defeat at the hands of the celebrity-occupying Cincinnati Reds. The defeat left Brooklyn 2 1/2 games ahead of Chicago.

SOX AFTER SHORTSTOP

Chicago, June 20.—(AP)—Young Gregory Mullenav, Toledo American Association shortstop, would be wearing a Chicago White Sox uniform if the Toledo management could be induced to part with him.

The Sox hold an option on Mul-lenav, whose fielding has been brilliant and whose hitting average has hovered around .340, but cannot exercise it until later in the season. The Toledo club today was tied for third place, one game behind second position, and the Mud Hen management is loathe to let Mullenav go, even though the Sox could use a good shortstop.

second half of the Texas League split season opens.

The Dallas club officials said Alexander's salary will be the highest in the history of the Texas League.
They declined to reveal the actual

REVISION STATE TAX SYSTEM PUT UP TO ELECTORS

To Vote On Amendment To Constitution At General Election

Springfield, Ill., June 20—(AP)—Revision of the Illinois taxing system now rests with the voters.

The proposed amendment to the state Constitution's revenue article yesterday left all legislative barriers behind when the Senate concurred in House amendments to the resolution directing a referendum at the general election November 4 on the plan to modernize the Illinois fiscal system proposed by Gov. L. L. Emerson.

The principal House amendment to the bill prohibits the Legislature from passing any income tax law which would permit more than 15 per cent of the revenue collected to be retained by the state except by sanction of a two-thirds vote of both Houses of the Assembly.

The House adopted the Senate resolution as amended, 103 to 25, one more vote than the required two-thirds majority. The House limitation would guarantee that 85 per cent of the income tax revenue would be distributed among the counties and municipalities from which it was collected. The Senate concurred in this provision, designed by downstate leaders to appease Cook county legislators, by a two-thirds vote.

Approved Strawn Bills

After passing the revenue bill, the House gave its approval to the Strawn bills for the relief of Cook county taxing bodies including the measures allowing bond issues without a referendum. Enough downstate legislators united with the Cook county delegation to pass the latter although some opposition from downstate Representatives developed to them. The 31 relief bills now go to the Senate where they are expected to be taken up after the week end recess. The House bills authorize bond issues of more than $63,000,000, most of which is to pay the back debts of Chicago, Cook County, the Chicago Board of Education and the major metropolitan park boards.

A battle over the bill of Minority Leader Michael Igoe to abolish the Board of Review and Board of Assessors in Cook county preceded the adoption of the revenue article amendment in the House. After being criticized by Republicans as a political measure, the measure was defeated.

Adjournment Is Near

Among the House riders to the revenue amendment resolution was one calling for uniform valuation of all properties other than mineral lands and lands under re-forestation. The exemption clauses of the present constitution are not to be disturbed.

Defending the income tax clause in the Senate, Sen. K. M. Dunlap, (Rep.) said: "It is estimated that approximately $36,000,000 will be collected annually in the state through an income tax. Cook county would pay $5,400,000 of the tax which it would collect to the state but would receive nearly three-quarters of the total income tax collected."

The passage of the amendment in both houses, the relief bills by the lower house; the taking of final action by the House on Senate bills providing for the sale of waterway equipment in event the federal government takes over the Illinois waterway, and appropriating $70,000 to carry water and soldier bonus bonds until payments can be arranged cleaned up most of the work for which the special session was called and opened the way for adjournment, predicted by Assembly leaders for next Thursday.

New Orleans, June 20—(AP)—John W. Williams, 27, Federal prohibition undercover agent of Washington, D. C., early today shot Stanley Loret 34, and a Negro, Robert Addison 24, in an encounter in the city's business section. He was charged with "shooting and wounding."

Loret and Addison were taken to a hospital where attendants said they were expected to recover.

The shooting occurred on Canal Street, between Royal and Bourbon Streets, in view of motorists and pedestrians, and within a block of a policeman who hurried to the scene when the shots were fired.

Williams said that early yesterday he became involved in a fight with Loret and Addison in a resort which he said Loret operated as a speakeasy. He asserted that the dispute was resumed when the three met on Canal Street, and that Loret attacked him with a knife. It was then he said, that he drew his revolver and fired.

Loret, however, told police the first altercation occurred when Williams tried to hold up his drink establishment, and the same statement was made by the Negro.

Williams made a report of the shooting to Prohibition Administrator O. D. Jackson.

Loret's resort, in which the first quarrel occurred, was raided yesterday by police, and a quantity of liquor was seized.

CAIRO GROCER SAYS, "GLY-CAS HAS NO EQUAL"

Had Dizzy Spells, Would Nearly Fall at Times; Rheumatism, Kidney Trouble Entirely Now.

"Gly-Cas is the only medicine I have ever taken that actually reached my case and really did what is claimed to do," said Mrs. R. F. East, 3306 Park Ave., Cairo, Illinois, a well known grocer.

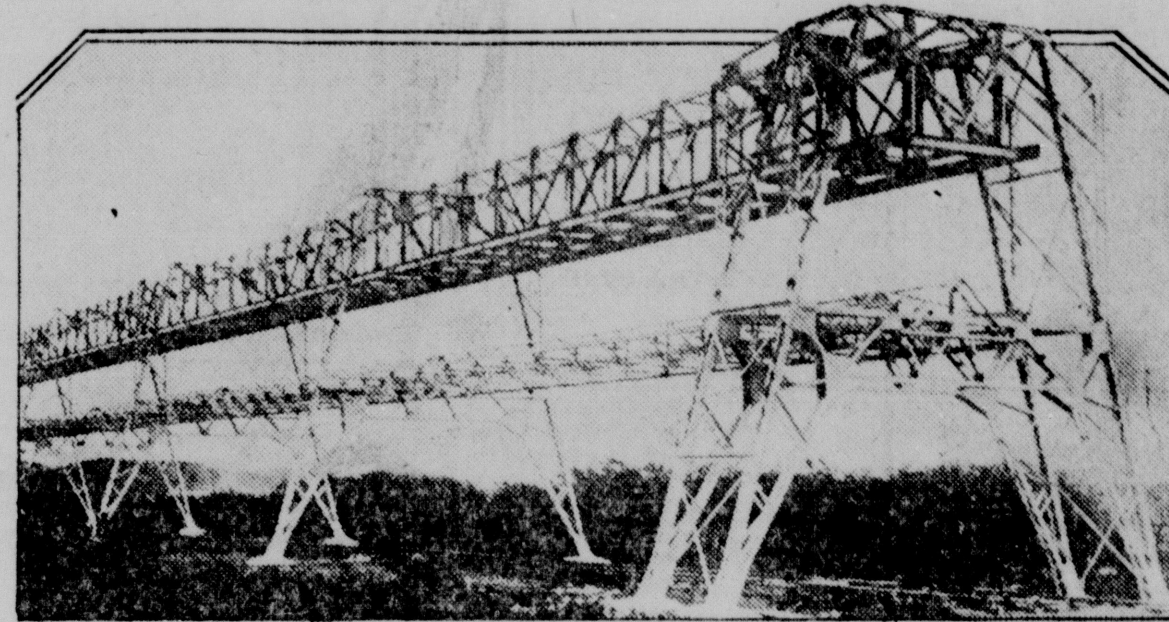

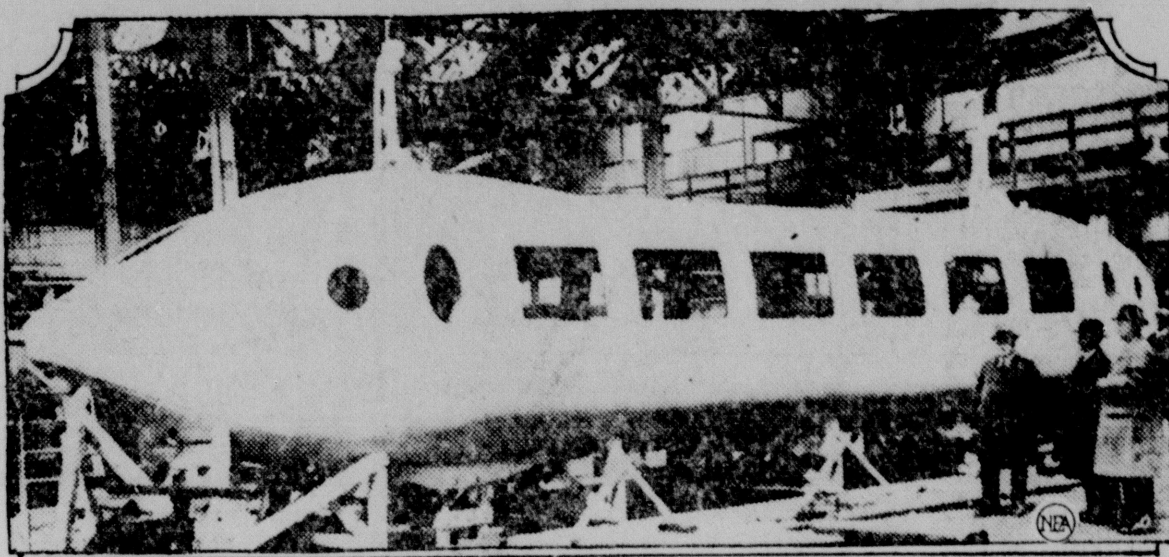

MR. R. F. EAST

"I had rheumatism in my shoulders, neck and back of my head so it hindered me in my work," he continued, "I could not bend my neck to look up or I would get dizzy and nearly fall at times. At night no matter what I had been doing during the day I would become so tired and worn out that I could hardly get around. I could not sleep at nights as I was constantly bothered with my kidneys and had to get up three and four times at night. I was in general poor health and was gradually wearing out, until I was persuaded to try Gly-Cas and now it has restored me to good health. I have never had a medicine to do me so much good in all of my life, now I can go to bed at night and get a good night's sleep and am not bothered with my kidneys at all. I feel fine and that tired worn out feeling has left me. The rheumatism has been driven from my system and that awful dizziness has gone and I never have that soreness and stiffness in my back and shoulders. I know what Gly-Cas has done for me and what it can do, it is far better than any medicine I have ever taken, and can say that everyone suffering as I did should try Gly-Cas immediately."

Two Accidents Mar Ex-Kaiser's Outing

Amsterdam, Holland, June 19.—(AP)—Two accidents which brought injuries to several of his guests and servants marred an outing of the former Kaiser, William Hohenzollern, and his family yesterday. One was a boat explosion and the other an automobile accident.

Wilhelm, with his wife, the Princess Hermine, and about ten members of his household were guests of the Countess Pannevitz in two boats on Lake Kaag, near Leyden, when an explosion occurred on one of the craft.

The boat burst into flames and sank rapidly. The other boat immediately went to the aid of passengers and crew and pulled them aboard. Three persons were injured, two being members of the former Kaiser's household and the third a mechanic. The explosion was not explained.

In the second accident a motor car in which servants of Wilhelm were traveling between the Hague and Harlem overturned and the occupants were slightly injured.

Income Tax Rates

May Go Up In 1931

Washington, June 19.—(AP)—Washington is wondering if income tax rates are to be higher next year. Prospective expenditures for the next fiscal year are already estimated to exceed the expected government revenue. From present indications, the nation faces a deficit on July 1, 1931.

The one per cent income tax reduction of 1929 was a temporary measure only, and, unless action is taken to prolong its life, 1930 rates will revert to the level of 1928.

Treasury officials are watching the situation closely, and a final decision on the rate will be reached in the fall.

In his budget message of last December, President Hoover estimated the fiscal year 1931 would close with a surplus of $122,788,966. Since then, the Spanish War pension bill, approved over his veto, has added $75,000,000, and the expenses of the Farm Board now are set at $100,000,000.

Probe Fatal Blast

Huntsville, Tex., June 19.—(UP)—Investigations were underway today to place responsibility for the dynamite blast which killed three children here late yesterday as they were walking home from working in the fields.

Only scattered portions could be found of the bodies of Ruby Caden, 18, and her sister Claudia, 17. Their brother, Jack, 12, died in a hospital.

The blast was said to have been fired by scouts of the Texas Oil Co. who were trying to locate an oil-bearing formation.

SUB-P. O. HELD UP

Waukegan, Ill., June 19.—(AP)—Two robbers held up a post office substation and pharmacy last night and escaped with $201.94 after locking Erwin Walker, clerk, in a closet. Of the money taken, $129.20 was from the post office cash drawer.

CAUSE FOR SUICIDE

Chesham, Eng.—(UP)—When Mrs. Emily Hill, 61, committed suicide, it was thought that she feared living to an old age, as she spent most of her life caring for her mother, who lived more than 100 years.

Saves Schooner's Crew

Gloucester, Mass., June 19.—(UP)—The U. S. Destroyer Wilkes reported by radio here today that it had picked up the crew of the two-masted Gloucester fishing schooner Flora L. Oliver. The fate of the schooner was not disclosed.

The Oliver, captained by Charles Williams, left Gloucester four days ago for the Georges with a crew of ten men aboard.

FLORIDA BANK CLOSES

Tallahassee, Fla., June 19.—(UP)—The Bankers Trust Company of St. Augustine, capitalized at $100,000, deposits of $284,596.30, failed to open today. Ernest Amos, State Comptroller, announced. It was the ninth Florida bank in 10 days to take such action.

BULL'S EYE RECORD

Bisley.—(UP)—Major Bapty, of the Indian Army, scored 21 consecutive bull's eyes for a world's record of 105 points out of a possible 105, firing seven shot each on the National Rifle Association's ranges from 200, 500 and 600 yards.

Food Prices Fall

Washington, June 19.—(AP)—Retail food prices are still falling, although the decrease on May 15 as compared to the month ending April 15 were slightly less than three-fourths of one percent.

Figures made public today by the Bureau of Labor Statistics showed decreases in 22 food articles, including a precipitate decline in cabbage of 26 per cent. Such staples as pork chops, eggs, flour and navy beans fell slightly. Oranges, onions and potatoes increased in price.

ITINERARY FOR HOOVER'S TRIP NOT CONSIDERED

Plans For His Vacation
Await Adjournment
Of Congress

BY JAMES P. SELVAGE

Washington, June 20.—(AP)—Through a virtual deluge of invitations for him to visit almost every state and many cities west of the Mississippi river on his trip this summer, President Hoover, constantly and placidly, gives the same answer.

No itinerary is being considered until Congress is ready to adjourn. Senators, Congressmen, Governors, Mayors, National Committeesmen, Chambers of Commerce, and individuals have pleaded—many of them in person—with the Chief Executive to visit the particular locality in which they are interested.

He has been invited to fish, to peak, to parade, to banquet to rest and confer from Chicago to Dallas, and from Kansas City to Tacoma.

Contingent upon Congress adjourning finally by the middle of July, the President expects to leave the Capital late in the month, to be gone five or six weeks.

He will pass through Minneapolis and start his tour of the Rocky Mountain National Parks at Glacier Park, near the Canadian border, stopping there to fish for about a week, the longest halt proposed for the entire journey of five or six thousand miles.

After that the itinerary is unknown even to the Chief Executive except that he expects to make the return trip across the continent by the southern route, probably touring Grand Canyon Park and passing through Texas with one or more stops in that state.

Plans have been further complicated by the condition of Mrs. Hoover, who is still convalescing from a wrenched back suffered more than two months ago. She is said by Captain Joel T. Boone, the White House physician, to be steadily improving at the Presidential camp in Virginia where she is resting, but it is unknown whether she will have recovered sufficiently by late July to stand the strain of the long automobile rides which the western trip would include.

EAGLES ELECT OFFICERS.
Quincy, Ill., June 19.—(AP)—John J. Rohrer of Blue Island, Ill., was elected worthy state president of the Illinois State Aerie of Eagles and Peoria was awarded next year's convention at the closing session of the organization's annual meeting today.

Atkinson, Canton, worthy state outside guard; James P. Feeney, of Morris, John J. Nicholson of Joliet, and Jacob D. Rul, of South Chicago, worthy state trustees.

MINE WILL REOPEN.
Rosiclare, Ill., June 19.—(AP)—The Hillside flourspar mine, closed down last week when the water tower tank, furnishing the mine's supply, disappeared into a cave-in, will resume operations when a new water supply source is completed next week. The cave-in was due to excavations for spar and the earth swallowed the tank, which may have dropped 400 to 500 feet, as mining operations extended that deep.

The mine has been employing 150 men four days a week.

Broker Suicides

New York, June 19.—(UP)—De-spondent because of stock market losses, Walter Werner, 37, a broker, shot himself to death in bed in his apartment today.

ERRORGRAMS

This is Scrambled

MILANDNO

Picked on a good deal.

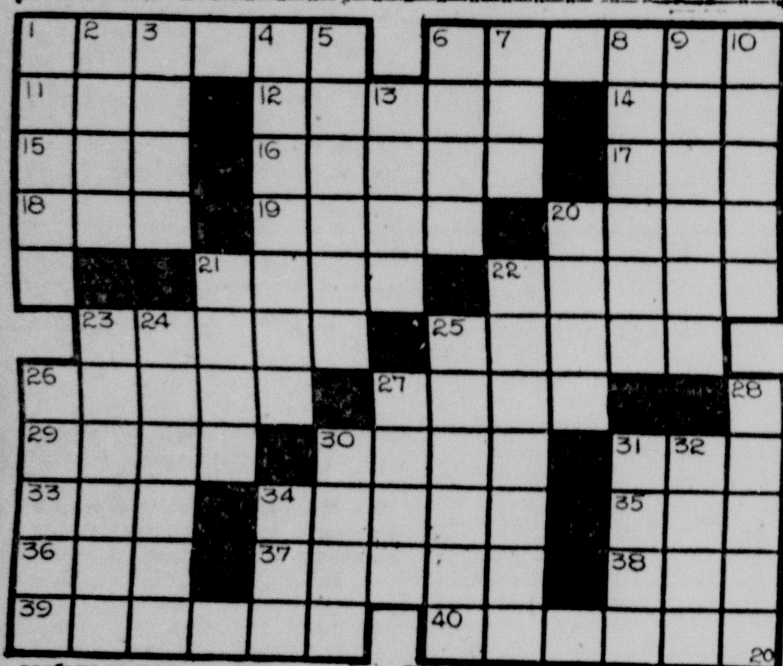

(Copyright, 1930, NEA Service, Inc.)

There are at least four mistakes in the above picture. They may pertain to grammar, history, etiquette, drawing or whatnot. See if you can find them. Then look at the scrambled word below—and unscramble it, by switching the letters around. Grade yourself 20 for each of the mistakes you find, and 20 for the word if you unscramble it. Tomorrow we'll explain the mistake and tell you the word. Then you can see how near a hundred you bat.

THURSDAY'S CORRECTIONS

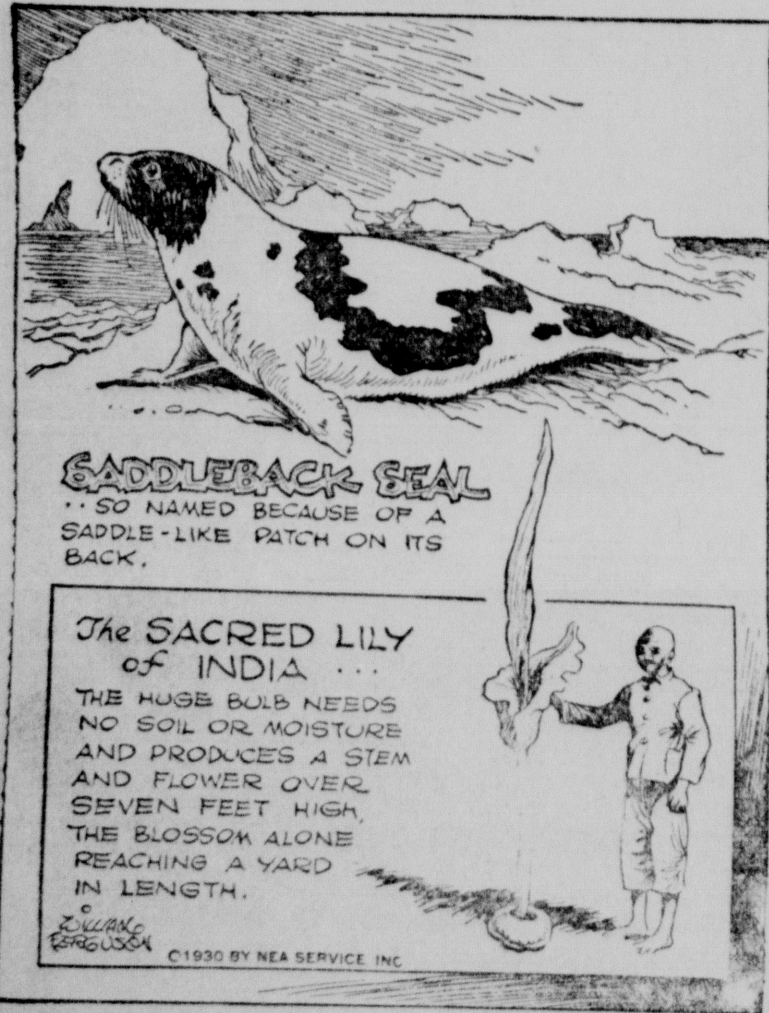

(1) The line guide should be on the same side of the rod as the reel. (2) The straps, to hold up the man's wading boots, are missing. (3) There should be a hole in the top of the reel at the girl's side. (4) The forward reel strap, to go over the girl's shoulder, is missing. (5) The scrambled word is PROFANELY.

Will Try To Reach Pole In Submarine

Paris, June 19.—(AP)—Captain Sir George Hubert Wilkins, British explorer, and Lincoln Ellsworth, American, who has spent much of his life in Arctic regions today announced collaboration in an attempt next year to reach the North Pole by means of a submarine.

At Lenzburg, Switzerland, Captain Wilkins issued a statement saying that Mr. Ellsworth, who was a joint leader with Roald Amundsen on the flight of the Norge across the North Pole, will be associated with him as joint leader in the projected exploration trip to be known as the Wilkins-Ellsworth trans-polar submarine expedition.

TALBOT PATRICK, EDITOR OF THE GOLDSBORO (N. C.) NEWS-ARGUS, SAYS:

THAT isn't it likely dreams never come true until they first have been dreamed?

In the same way, isn't it likely that our hopes and wishes for ourselves and for our community are not likely to come true half so fast unless we put these hopes and wishes into definite form of words and then work for them?

The first question we were reminded of a couple of days ago when a Goldsboro woman told us it is her hope to make a trip to Alaska and then commented, "I suppose that sounds like a pretty large order." If she does make the trip to Alaska the chances are ninety-nine out of a hundred it will be because she had been dreaming and hoping and planning for such a trip.

The second question reflects our reaction to a question asked of the president of the Goldsboro Kiwanis Club, Dr. A. G. Woodward, by J. W. House, president of the Wilson Kiwanis Club: "What are your club's objectives for this year?" And several members of the Goldsboro Club laughed. We understood why they laughed, how they laughed. It is easy to have objectives, to have both general ideals to be carried out by members of a civic club and to have broad plans for the work of the club and its members in their community, but.

"What are your objectives for this year?"

That makes things pretty definite. That question calls for a definite answer of things the club plans. And, when you have many general plans, some of which are slowly working to fruition, still it is hard to speak up and say, "Our objectives for this year are thus-and-so." A question like that calls for a brass-tack answer. Under the circumstances, Dr. Woodward acquitted himself as well as any member of the club could have. But we believe that every member of the club present had driven home to him the need and value of putting objectives for the year into the definite form of words. For, with your objectives definitely set before you, it is far easier to push straight toward them and to attain what you set out to do. The meeting was an excellent lesson for a civic club's members and, incidentally, one from which each of us can draw something of value.

Daily Health Talk

THE TIRED SICKNESS
BY SUMNER M. MILLER, M. D.
Peoria, Illinois.

(This series of articles is prepared under the direction of the Gorgas Memorial Institute, which is organized to perpetuate the life work of the late Major-General Gorgas in preventing unnecessary illness. The headquarters of the Institute are at 1321 G. Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.)

Very aptly, tuberculosis has been designated as the tired sickness. While cough is commonly suggestive of the disease, the tiredness that marks its onset—though equally common—is less generally known as a manifestation of it. This fatigue is of such gradual onset that the disease may be well under way before the victim is aware of the invasion of his health. Almost without exception, those afflicted tell the story of impaired strength, lack of accustomed energy and a lagging at their daily tasks, associated with or antedating the cough.

Persistent and progressive tiredness is not confined to tuberculosis but is a manifestation of various diseases and should lead one to his physician for a searching examination for the cause. More especially should one be alert if accompanying the fatigue there is loss of weight.

cough, sometimes persistent hoarseness, often pain in the chest, or pleurisy. Occasionally the expectoration may be associated with the coughing of blood and is of itself sufficiently alarming to awake one to its seriousness and drive him to his physician. But less spectacular, the tiredness creeping on one so insidiously does not draw attention to itself in so dramatic a manner and is to often disregarded until the disease has become well advanced.

In the earlier stages tuberculosis is usually curable, but disregard of the early symptoms allows it to progress to a stage where cure is difficult or impossible. Neglect of the early warnings costs many lives and it is essential that the insidious nature of the onset be appreciated and the manifestations be recognized at an early stage if one is to be cured.

Consumption developing in adult life is usually the result of tuberculous infection in childhood. The germs, invading the system in the earlier years of life are held in check, remaining alive but latent for many years, awaiting a favorable opportunity to attack. As long as the individual is robust, strong and well, the opportunity is not apt to arrive, but if the resistance is broken down by exposure to cold and chilling, by such an illness as influenza, by fatigue, lack of sleep or any excess, then the breakdown of resistance gives the germs an opportunity to thrive and consumption develops.

As by far the greater number of us have contracted this childhood infection and carry the latent colonies of germs, our chief safeguard against the development of the disease consists in maintaining the maximum of good health; in securing abundance of sleep and rest; in avoiding fatigue, colds and exposure; and in general of properly balancing our lives between rest and work, exercise and nutrition.
